Ceiling / Structural Support
The installer / customer must verify the ceiling structure and fixing point are structurally sound and suitable to support the full weight of the lampshade and suspension system. The suspension must be anchored to a structural support (e.g., joist/beam or an appropriately rated concrete anchor) in accordance with local codes and site conditions.

For any lampshade over 2.5kgs, a steel support cable is required. For a frictionless install, we recommend the suspension kits linked below (or equivalent self-locking wire suspension kits sourced by your electrician)

Installation must be carried out by a qualified electrician.

Electrical components are not included.
Please see the helpful links below for purchasing bulbs, cord sets & light bulb socket:
